Privacy Policy and Your Consent

If you choose to provide personal information to Padgett Business Services, we assume that you consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as outlined in our Privacy Policy or otherwise at the time of collection, use or disclosure. If you do not consent, please do not provide your personal information or, where applicable, exercise the opt-in or opt-out options offered. If Padgett Business Services requests additional personal information or intends to use or disclose your personal information differently than described in our Privacy Policy, we will advise you at or before the time of collection, use or disclosure (as the case may be) as to how we will handle that personal information. Padgett Business Services will not collect, use or disclose personal information other than as described herein, or at the time of collection, use or disclosure (as the case may be), or as otherwise required or permitted by law. There are limited instances where Padgett Business Services may collect, use or disclose your personal information without your consent as required or permitted by law, for example: (1) to collect a debt owed to us; (2) to meet government tax reporting requirements; and (3) to comply with an order made by a court. Consent may be expressed or implied depending on the circumstances. Please note that, in some cases, your choice to refuse or withdraw consent to certain collection, use or disclosure of personal information may impact on our ability to provide you with certain products or services. The Padgett Business Services Privacy Policy is available at www.smallbizpros.ca.
